“ You came into my life 24 years ago. We shared many, many good times together. From all the holidays at your family's house to me watching the kids grow up to you watching my family's kids grow up also. You never left me even through the difficult times, which were many even through my own personal demons. I can't believe that you are no longer here. My heart is shattered. I expect the phone to ring, and it doesn't. I love you 💕 Maria. We always joked until death do us part. Now it's our reality. I just wanted you to know as our last phone call that I love ❤️ you more than life itself. Rest my darling. I will see you again. I promise to take care of junior. I know it was legal, but you leave as wife. I remember it all. So many concerts, so many comic con, so many dinners, so many times together. Just so you remember, which I know you do here is our first picture together. I love you 🥰 my beautiful MB. Wait for me. I will wait for you until you decide to come get me. ❤️💔
