She was a devoted loving wife, mother, grandmother, sister, friend. Cristina came to the United States at a young age, she traveled around the states for work before settling down in San Antonio, Texas where she worked at Fine Silver Manufacturing Company as a seamstress. She had a passion for sewing. She hemmed pants, made dresses, mariachi, cheerleading outfits, and baby clothes but her forte was always quincenera dresses. She could make anything without a pattern. She met her husband Antonio G.

Hernandez, and they had two children. She took care of her husband after he had a stroke. She was determined to make sure her children had everything they needed. She was a very strong-willed woman; she would not let anyone push her around. She loved going to bingo. She had a group of friends that would always go. If you needed to find her and it was after 5pm, she was at bingo. She loved her children, Antonio, and Sandra but she had a special love for all her grandchildren, Antonio, Liliana, Robert, and Elizabeth. "Momo" will be missed by all of us. There is an empty chair in our home, she will always be in our hearts. In case we never said it enough to you: Momo, we love you and we miss you.
