Known as Miss Martinez, Mary, Pie, and Amparo she worked in finance for many years before settling at St. Leo's Catholic School as a pre-K teacher and then Shekinah and Radiance Academy as School Administrator. She spoke lovingly of her years as a teacher and enjoyed attending Quinceañera's, graduations, weddings, and birthday parties of her students as they grew into adulthood. She loved to knit, cook, travel, and play slot machines whenever possible.

She is preceded in death by her parents Moises R. and Antonia V. Martinez, her brother José A. (Joe) Martinez, Sr., and nephew Jordan Moisés Guillén.
