MARIA R. SEGURA

Maria Rosales Segura joined her Lord on August 25, 2021 in San Antonio, Texas. She was born on May 22, 1934 in San Benito, Texas to Crispin Rosales and Juanita Castillo. Maria, or Mary as she was known to most, was preceded in death by her parents and her brothers, Crispin, Abel, Israel and Erasmo Rosales. She is survived by her beloved husband of 69 years, Gilberto M. Segura; daughters, Annie Cardenas (Jim), Dalia Flores (Jim); sons, Gilbert Segura, Jr. (Adela), Arnie Segura (Kathleen), Martin Segura (Cindy); sister, Margarita Cerecedo; brothers, Guillermo Rosales, Mauro Rosales (Lucy), Jose Rosales; 8 grandchildren; and 5 great grandchildren. Mary was a beautiful wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, sister, aunt and friend. Her devotion and love for her family was apparent. She had a beautiful smile and charisma that will always be remembered. Mary loved her family dearly and always appreciated a reason to celebrate or spend time together, especially a holiday, birthday, or lunch on Sunday after church at one of her favorite restaurants. Her love for family gatherings always included laughter whether it was a family bunco night, Christmas Eve tradition or Easter egg hunt. She loved traveling and being around her grandchildren and great-grandchildren. She was always ready to take any of the kids up on a trip when they invited her to the valley, Vegas, or on a cruise. Mary loved music, singing and dancing the night away with Gilbert at the NCO Club with friends. She also enjoyed margaritas while listening to Mexican polkas, cumbias and mariachi music, especially songs by Juan Gabriel, Vicente Fernandez and many more. She and Gilbert were also active in their community for many years, volunteering as Presiding Judges for the Election Poll at Mary F. Huppertz Elementary School and volunteering at the annual Folklife Festival coordinating ticket takers for the gate entrances. Mary was a strong individual who lived life to its fullest. She was loved by many and will be missed dearly.
