“ What I will remember about my cousin Susie was that she was always cheerful, interested in family, attended our all our family gatherings, and her laugh. May the inner light that was with her carry her all the way home. Bye Susie, Love you 🙏🙏🙏

“ Tía Sue was always cheerful and happy to be around her family. She laughed. She danced. She played with all the kids. She ate the cake.

She was always ready for an adventure. Call her and ask her if she wanted to join you on an outing and her answer would be, "Sure, give me 15 minutes to get ready." Then she would call you if you were late.

She always had baggies in her purse to take all the chips and salsa and leftovers home for later. She'd order water and take everyone's lemons and make lemonade. 🍹 The "to-go" plates she would take home from a party would last her all week.

She could walk by a plant somewhere, pluck a leaf from it, take it home and plant it, and it would thrive and grow into the biggest, prettiest, happiest plant.

Her family is so big that she'd call you by everyone's else's name first, but eventually get to yours. And you'd both laugh.

"Gimme a squeeze!" was her trademark greeting and goodbye.
