“ To all the Treviño family my deepest sympathy. I remember your Mom so dearly. We were neighbors for so long and I saw all her kids grow up . I remember seeing her at Rayburn Elementary often. How can I forget ? I just saw her Nov 6 when I went to vote. To Diana: You have always been very special to me. From the first moment you began calling me Dad I began loving you like my own daughter. The years have passed but I will never stop loving you as my own daughter . My heart breaks for you right now . I am sorry that I didn't know about your Mom till this week . I would have been there . I know how it feels to lose your Mom. God bless you and all the family,Albert Castillo and all the Castillo Family
