

Marian T. Rowe

October 27, 1921 - May 13, 2013

Marian Elizabeth Taylor Rowe entered into a new life on May 13, 2013 at the age of 91. Marian was a 1939 Graduate of Jefferson High School in San Antonio, where she was the president of the Thespian Club. She married Perry Hall Rowe and served as his helpmate for the next 52 years until his death. Marian was always involved in her local church in the communities where they lived and she taught Sunday School for the children. In addition she was active in the social life of the church. Even though they moved often throughout the years, she always called San Antonio home. She was a true help to her husband in his careers and she and Hall enjoyed dancing, and playing bridge and golf together. Marian was a lovely lady who was a true friend to those who knew her and brought laughter to a lot of people. She will be missed.

Marian was preceded in death by her husband Hall Rowe and her father and mother, Earl and JoD Taylor as well as her sisters, JoAnn and Mable, and her brother Tommy. She is survived by her two sons, Steven Rowe and spouse Trish of Wimberley, Texas and Terry Rowe and spouse Judy of Pelham, Alabama. She is also survived by 4 granddaughters, Cathy, Keely, Jenny, and Elizabeth and her husband Scott Strickland; great granddaughter, Charis Headley and great grandson Barrett Strickland.
