

Marie McDonald

July 25, 1929 - November 1, 2008

Marie McDonald, age 79, was born July 25, 1929 in Alex, Oklahoma and went home to be with her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ on November 1, 2008. Marie loved everyone and was loved by all who knew her. She was a good and faithful servant of Jesus Christ and reflected His love to everyone. She was a life-long care-giver for her husband and many others who needed a loving, caring touch. Marie's theme song was "I'm Going to Heaven," which she sang often at church. According to the Bible and the words of her song, we know she is in Heaven rejoicing in our Savior's presence and enjoying a blessed family reunion with loved ones who went before her. She was preceded in death by her husband, James Jake McDonald, three brothers and three sisters. She is survived by her children; Betty Louise Hicks and husband Dan, James Michael McDonald and wife Candy, Helen Marie Arbuthnot and husband David, and Jimmy Darryl McDonald and his wife Karen; eight grandchildren, Keith Blohm and wife Melissa, John Hicks and wife Theresa, Dawn Marie Wood and husband Damon, Lani Brower and husband Jeff, David Arbuthnot, Natasha Hartsfield and husband Clifton, Dierda McDonald and Jeff McDonald; and 10 great grandchildren, Daniel Wood, Deanna Wood, Hunter Brower, DeLani Wood, Cole Blohm, Sarah Hicks, Molly Blohm, David Mack Wood, Baby Boy Hicks and Baby Girl Brower who are due to make their entrances this November and next March. She is also survived by her sister Patricia Ahr and many loving nephews and nieces including her pastors Rusty Henley and Douglas Young, and Linda Schumann, her driver and companion.
