

Marie A. Moon

September 30, 1930 - March 2, 2007

Marie A. Moon passed away Friday, March 2, 2007 at the age of 76. She is survived by her husband, Loyd Moon, son, Loyd E. Moon Jr., sisters, Sara F. Valenzuela, Julia Toscano, Alberta Jimenez, and Theresa Garcia, brothers, Henry A. Garcia Jr. and Basil S. Garcia, grandchildren, Shelley, Jeremy, Ryan, Jonathan, Kellie, and Trey, and great-grandchildren, Kaelin and Lexi.

SERVICES

Visitation will be at 5:00 pm Tuesday, March 6, 2007 at Mission Park Funeral Chapels North with a Vigil service at 7:00 pm. Funeral service will be at 9:00 am Wednesday, March 7, 2007 at Mission Park Funeral Chapels North. Interment will follow in Mission Burial Park North.

Tribute Wall

AB

“ Dear Moon Family,

We are sorry for your loss. It is a loss shared by many. Mama Moon had such a big heart and she made lots of people feel special and loved. She will live on in our memories. May God bless her and comfort each of you in your grief.

Angie Barber - March 06, 2007 at 12:00 AM

CB

“ Moon Family,

My heart was broken when I heard of Marie's passing, but I'm comforted knowing that she is now rejoicing with our savior in heaven. Mama Moon always went out of her way to take care of me at Camp Tecaboca, whether I was a camper, on staff

Chuck & Kris Barber - March 06, 2007 at 12:00 AM

EM

“ Dear Family & Friends of Mama Moon,

I am so saddened that Mama is no longer here, I am so sorry for your loss. I have so many wonderful memories of Mama Moon, especially of our times together at Tecboca in Mountain Home, Texas. I often reflect of the k

Erin McGinnis - March 06, 2007 at 12:00 AM

DA

“ Dear Loyd and family,

I am very sorry for the passing of Marie, or as we so lovingly knew her at Camp Tecaboca "Mama Moon." She made my many summers at Tecaboca feel like home. I especially remember how she "adopted" me when I was a young counselor

David Archer - March 06, 2007 at 12:00 AM