In her life she worked as a housekeeper, soda jerk, legal secretary, shop owner, real estate appraiser and forty years as a real estate broker and business owner. Her purple real estate signs were well known throughout the Southside of San Antonio and the infamous purple shag carpet installed in 1964 was still present at her business location on Hot Wells until the sale of the property in 1999. Some thirty five years later! It seemed both the carpet and Marie would never wear out! She was an excellent homemaker with nothing being left undone. She was the "Queen of Clean". Her family, home and profession were her passions. Marie went home with great anticipation of meeting her Lord October 26, 2012 with her family and friends by her side.
