“ Dear Roxana,

I was so very sorry to learn of the death of your Mother. Such very fond memories of being with her during all of the Alpha Chi days and going "way out" to your home for meetings. They were very special people and definitely a part of my

“ Dear Roxana,
I am sorry for your loss of your mother. Donna told me about it this morning. I remember when you were looking for a bedside chest some years back when she first moved. It is difficult time and you have my sympathy and love.

“ My family and I have many fond memories of "Autie Ree". She was an interesting person to talk to. She had a really neat laugh and she loved her family very much. I will miss her a lot.
