“ I grew up across the street from the Sager family and am very sad to hear of Mrs. Sager passing. We are about to lose another of the three remaining Westshire parents Mr. Jose) and my heart aches for the good old days in the 70s when we were all young and everyone’s parents watched out for all of us kids. Chuck, Ronnie, Pam and Laurie I am so sorry for your loss and that I am just finding out about it. Mr. Kleinjan didn’t last very long after your mom left. I’m so very sad right now words can’t describe it. 💕💕 Stephanie Lozano Espinoza

“ I am a niece of Uncle Butch, Marietta's husband. Uncle Butch was my mother Ellie's brother. I remember her wedding in Glandorf. I thought she was the most beautiful bride I'd ever seen. I was around 10 or 11 at that time. We hadn't been in contact for years until her last year. I just now found out about her passing when my Christmas card came back. I'm so sorry for all of you, her family. I know how much you will miss her. She was a good person and loved her family above all else. Please accept my condolences.

“ Mom, thank you for allowing me to be a member of the family. You've been our rock to lean on, our sounding board, our shelter in stormy weather. I already miss your voice, but can still feel your presence, watching over us. You will forever be in my heart and thoughts. Rest peacefully in the arms of our Lord, you have earned it.

“ Marietta was a very sweet and humble lady. She was always thinking of what others might need instead of focusing on herself. She loved to give both spiritually and materially to her family and she did it in a quite manner, not seeking to draw attention to either herself or good deeds. Whenever she came to spend a few days with us, she always left with less than she arrived with. That was just her way and we loved her for it.

When Pam and I adopted Alexah, Marietta never once treated her as anything other than her granddaughter. The two of them were so close and it warmed our hearts to know she cared so much. Through calls and cards, tears and laughs...she was always there in the moment with an interest and sincerity that was never feigned. Marietta was such a blessing to Alexah as a confidant in hard times and a pillar of belief. Hopefully, her example will light Alexah's way forward.

Marietta lit the way for all of us and showed us the path. I know her only wish if or each of us to follow. I will never forget the kindnesses she showed me and my family.

“ My father, my Aunt Marietta’s brother, died in 1982. When my mother died in 1996, I felt I had no more attachment to my dad’s family. And, then, my Aunt Marietta reached out to me. Every birthday she would write me and remind me I was part of her family. Every Christmas she would send me a card and remind me that I was part of her family. She never let me forget that I still had a connection to my dad through her...a connection I treasured deeply.

My aunt’s faith in Jesus Christ grew as her years increased. She knew I had trusted Jesus as Lord and Savior, as well, so our conversations took on a spiritual importance and, for that, I will be eternally grateful. I know I will see her in heaven again one day because we both accepted Jesus as our Savior.

I know, without a shadow of a doubt, she would want anyone reading this to trust the Lord Jesus Christ as his/her Savior, for she longs to see each and every one of you in heaven and to spend eternity with her treasured friends and family.

Marietta was a very good person. We knew her and her beautiful family in Italy (Mesagne) 50 years ago. Every Christmas and every Easter she wrote a letter. She will be always in our heart. Florio family.

I just found out yesterday about this. Please Chuck, Pam, Ron and Laurie, accept my sincere sympathy. I and Jerry so enjoyed the visits with her and your dad over the past years. Your dad took us to the AF base and showed us around. That was such a good visit. Pam, I still think about the time you and your husband treated us to steaks at the Longhorn restaurant, I believe. You are all in my heart even though we don't see one another. Your mom was a good woman and I know you miss her. I wish I'd known sooner. Love to all of you. Sherry
