

Marilyn R. Lingerfelt

January 20, 1933 - January 19, 2017

Marilyn R. Lingerfelt age 83 of San Antonio passed away peacefully on Thursday, January 19, 2017.

She loved God, she loved her family and she loved her animals. She enjoyed the beauty of color and nature. She spent most of her days gardening. People would drive up to her and marvel at her yard.

She was compassionate, giving, caring and always thinking of others. Friends remembered her for her grace and elegance.

Marilyn was preceded in death by her husband, Marshall B. Lingerfelt; her youngest son, Lance B. Lingerfelt; her parents, Egnar and Myrtle (Swanson) Hultman and her brother, Robert J. Hultman. She is survived by her daughters, Terri Payne and her husband, Curtis and their children, Marshall and Lynea and Tama Oringderff and her children, Jon and Ida; her son, Robert B. Lingerfelt and his children, Tara and Zacharia; 6 great grandchildren; 3 great great grandchildren; sister-in-law, Doris Hultman; nieces and nephews; and daughter-in-law, Vicky Lingerfelt. She will deeply missed by her family and friends.

The family is holding a private Celebration of Life.

Contributions in her memory may be made to any animal shelter of your choice.

Terri, I'm glad to know your memories of your mom continue to sustain you. I own two of her art works and handmade Christmas items she and your dad gave to me. She was a wonderful neighbor. Martha Avila now in San Angelo, TX

“ My mother was everything a mom should be. She was still cooking and providing a home for my sister Tama. She was an artist and loved to read. I miss her everyday. Terri

“ Although I didn't know Ms Lingerfelt, her daughter Tama and I are good friends. Tama shared many stories of how strong Ms Lingerfelt was. Even at 83, she still wanted to go out and do gardening. I know she will be missed by her family and friends. May you rest in peace Ms Lingerfelt.
