“ Simply Elegant Spathiphyllum was purchased for the family of Mario Revadillo Deonon.

“ I remember the first time I met Mario and his family. It was 1970, in Manila. Priscilla and I had taken a Victory Line bus to Manila so Priscilla could introduce me to her family. Mario and Mercy welcomed us into their humble home behind the main house. They treated us so graciously. I will never forget their kindness, nor will I forget how curious his little daughters, Laarni and Raquel were, to see an American in their home. I am happy Mario was able to live a long life and eventually migrate to the United States. I offer my condolences to the family.
