“ Life for me has changed forever now that you have no longer here. You have been the absolute best role model anyone could ever ask for. I feel so blessed that God chose me to be blessed with such an amazing grandmother as you. You have always been patient and loving in all you do. I thank you for playing dolls, teaching me to cook, and how to garden growing up. The memories you have given me and my kids have fulfilled our lives in more ways than I can describe. You have always been our angel, but now you are truly my angel. This is not goodbye... this is until next time. I love you always ❤️

My heart is broken. I couldn't have asked for a better best friend than you. Not many people have survived a friendship as long as we did. Thru elementary until now. We shared some awesome times with our children going fishing, going to each other's homes for parties. Sharing the round table at Comanche Ice with all our friends most who have gone ahead to meet you. I will miss the phone calls and the visits where we would share our problems and give each other advice. You lifted me up when I needed it the most. I will forever love you my precious best friend. Life will never be the same without you in it. But I promise to always love your children and be there for them as I know you would have been there for mine. Thank you for loving me just as I am. So long my buddy until we meet again you'll always be in my heart. Helen
