

Marion "Wayne" Dewayne Beadles

September 19, 1921 - October 18, 2021

Wayne was born in Winslow, Indiana on September 19, 1921 and departed this life into the arms of his Lord and Savior Jesus Christ on October 18, 2021. He was born to Henry and Edith Beadles as Marion DeWayne Beadles. He is preceded in death by his parents, brother, Jim Beadles, sister, Mable Beadles, and nephew Jerry Talley.

He is survived by his loving wife Inis of over 75 years. Beadles sons; Ron and his wife Jessica their daughters, Terri Higgins and Carri Lohmear, Barry and his wife Darlene and their children Terry Beadles, and Wendy Cortinez, Don and his children Michael Beadles and Mandy Vela, his nephew Robert Talley of Garden Grove, CA and a host of friends.

Wayne served in WWII in both Army and Navy in the Mediterranean sixth Amphibious Fleet. At the end of his military career, he and Inis met our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Wayne soon felt called into ministry, resulting in their move to San Antonio to attend International Bible College. After graduation he became part of Pastoral and Missionary Staff of Destiny Church. He served as an Assistant Pastor to John Bell at Rival Temple, later becoming Associate Pastor, then appointed as Missions Pastor until retirement. He then served as a Charter Board member as an Elder of Destiny Church. He was a member of the International Ministerial Association for over 40 years, serving as District Chairman for The South Central District, and served several terms in that capacity. Being a man of many talents, he also retired from Southwest Research.

As a husband, father, grandfather, great great grandfather he was so thankful that his family was blessed and dedicated themselves to serving our Lord.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Destiny world Missions.

“ Well, Wayne, I know that Dad and Mom were there along with the Lord Jesus to welcome you home. Almost seems just a short time ago when you and Inis would come over with the boys to visit after Revival Temple service. Not very long ago that you and I spoke over Dad and Mom's services. Life is fleeting and then we go home. Thank you Jesus. Please look after dear Inis, and the boys and their families. Thank you Wayne for a life well lived. You have always been a picture of Christ.
