“ To my cousin Marissa, I will never forget all the years of playing together as little kids and baby sitting you on Friday nights. You were the little sister i always wanted, we spent almost everday together up to the age of 15. No words can describe how much you will be missed, but my heart is at peace knowing you will be resting in the green pastures with my mom. The day of my moms funeral you wrote on her ballon your favorite phrase as a child "I want to go to Aunt Cindys" and there you go. Your on your way Home to Heaven. The song that reminds me of you is "Home" by chris tomlin, i played it for you before you left and you said you liked it. Rest in peace pyt

“ Rissa you will be forever missed no one could ever compare to you, your 1 of a kind. I'm glad that you came into my life and that we got to meet, I wish you could meet my new family I always talked about you to my wife she wanted to meet you but you left to soon... I wish we hung out more and shared more memories but God need his Angel to go home and that was you God got the best Angel, you may be gone but your memories will always live on we love and miss you
