

Marjorie Ann Hayes

January 5, 1932 - November 24, 2014

Marjorie Marji Ann Hayes, 82, of San Antonio, Texas joined our Lord on Monday, November 24th, after an extended illness.

Born on January 5, 1932 to Opal and Buster Houchin in Nelson, Nebraska, Marji was one of four children. Her siblings Wilma, Larry and Richard are all still living. She graduated from Chester HS in 1949, where she was in the school band and drum majorette.

Marji is survived by her husband of 62 years, Loren. They met on a blind date and both believed it was "love at first sight." The couple has four children, all living: Lori and spouse Lon Magaro of California, Connie Amerson of San Antonio, Linda and spouse Richard Modawell of Florida, Randy Hayes and wife Tammy of Lubbock. She has six grandchildren--Bill, Rachel, Lauren, Ryder, Hannah and Randy--and a great grandson, Isaac. Marji was devoted to her family and loved deeply by them in return.

She was also a career woman, working in accounting and finance as a US Civil Servant wherever the USAF sent her husband.

Marji was very active in the Shriner's organization, where she was a Lady of both the Oriental Shrine and the Nile. In 2001, she served as Potentate's Lady. She traveled extensively after retiring, seeing many regions of the world.

She loved music and danced until she could no longer walk, then continued to enjoy just the music.

Her family would like to thank Heart to Heart Hospice, as well as all of her caregivers over the years, especially Leticia and her staff. They ensured Marji's final days were peaceful, calm and free from pain. There will be a memorial service, on Monday, December 1st at 12 noon, held at Mission Park North. In lieu of flowers, please consider a donation to Shriner's Hospital for Children.
