“ Mark was my best friend and best man at my wedding. We did everything together movies, concerts, theme parks.

I remember one vivid story of him that personifies what he was all about. He used to drive a green Monaco during high school and got tired of people asking for rides. So in his great wisdom, decided to remove the back bench and replace it with a lazy boy recliner secure one by a seat belt. if you wanted a ride, you had to sit in the recliner. Needless to say only 2 people rode in it, and I was one of them. Every time he turned the corner, the chair would spin around. Very scary but quite cool.

You will be missed Mark. Johnnah and the Dullnig please accept my deepest sympathy.
