

Mark Anthony Langon

June 21, 1978 - December 17, 2025

Mark Anthony Langon, beloved husband, brother, uncle, and cousin, joined his Lord on December 17, 2025, in San Antonio, Texas. He was born on June 21, 1978, in Kingston, New York, to Margot Olsen and Anthony Michael Langon, both of whom preceded him in death.

Mark is survived by his loving wife of 20 years, Tracey; his cherished siblings and their spouses: Lisa and Todd Snyder, Karen and Will Decker, Linda Olsen and Todd Lasher, and Rick and Denise Olsen. He is also survived by his nephew Todd Snyder Jr.; his nieces Lauren Olsen and Janelle Leipheimer (Kevin); and his great-nephew Otto Leipheimer.

Mark is further survived by his cousins—brothers in every sense of the word—Jeremy Mayr and John Mayr Jr., and was preceded in death by Joshua Paul Langon. He is also survived by his aunt Erika Wangerzym, cousin Natalie Mfundshe, and second cousin Michelle Wangerzym.

Coaching and teaching Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu and peek-a-boo style boxing were Mark's greatest passions. He took immense pride in supporting and developing his students and fighters, forming lasting bonds through discipline, dedication, and respect.

Mark will be remembered for having the heart of a lion and the ferocity of a wolf. His loyalty, humor, and indomitable spirit will be deeply missed by all who knew and loved him.

Services will be held in New York.

Tribute Wall

LO

“ My heart is completely broken. You were my uncle, but really you were more like a brother than anything else. So much of my childhood was spent in your room, playing video games and watching scary movies I definitely wasn't supposed to be watching. Those are some of my favorite memories.

You drove me crazy. You gave every boyfriend I ever had a hard time. And I would give anything to have even one more moment of that. I keep hoping this isn't real, that tomorrow I'll realize it was all just a bad dream.

I'm glad you're with Grandma again. I know she's been waiting for you. I miss you more than I can put into words. I love you so much, Mark. Until we meet again.

Lauren Olsen - December 31, 2025 at 09:13 PM

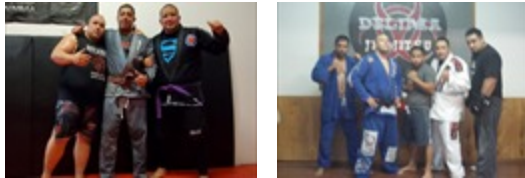

LO

“ I miss my brother Mark. Words can't even describe to heartbreak I feel right now. Mark always liked to mess with me and get me going and I will give anything for him to do that again. He was caring and funny and I will miss him. I know that he is in heaven with my mom watching over us and I will see you again someday . I love you Mark. Your sister Linda

Linda Olsen - December 29, 2025 at 08:24 PM

CR

“ You were my coach. We were brothers. I'm sorry that I never got to thank you for all the teachings. You believed in me when I didn't believe in myself. We were as close as close can be. You were the only man I ever called my coach. Because of you I have people that call me coach today. The gift you gave me of jiu jitsu but more so the gift you gave me of friendship. Til we meet again. Rest in peace, oss! my brother.

Christian Rodriguez - December 29, 2025 at 07:57 PM

FB

Bro. He hated you. And regretted promoting you. I know he would want me to tell you that.

Felicia Bannister - January 05 at 06:35 PM

LS

“ My brother Mark was a very loving, caring person. The best brother I could ever have - gone from us too soon. I miss him terribly and that will never go away. My heart is broken, but I know he is with the Lord now. Mark, I love you very much.....Your sister, Lisa.

Lisa Snyder - December 29, 2025 at 07:30 PM

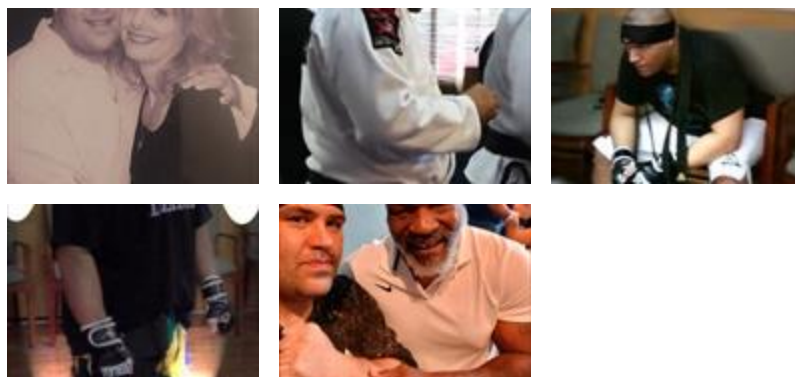

GP

“ Coach Mark was my first coach from white to purple belt. He received a very soft and sensitive girl who often cried on the mats and dealt with major anxiety. Coach Mark worked with me beyond technique and helped toughen me up and overcome my anxieties. I would consider myself an avid competitor and more composed on the mats now. I love jiu jitsu with all my heart and owe a big thanks to Coach Mark for training me and providing a safe environment to learn in.

Gabrielle Villafuerte Pickett - December 29, 2025 at 04:28 PM

TL

“ 5 files added to the album Mark

Tracey Graham Langon - December 26, 2025 at 05:06 PM