Just happened on this obituary, I worked with Mark at the refinery. I'm saddened by his passing, he was a very nice man and always got along well with people. I'm sorry for your loss Velia.

“ Mark was and always will be my sweet brother. He being 9 years younger was the proverbial pesky little brother who would push the boundaries with his no fear attitude as a child. He always made me laugh no matter how hard I wouldn't want to at times. He would say his prayers at night after a family bible reading time which our father led. His prayers could range from thoughtful and tender to request for lavish gifts. Such as trumpets, drum sets or a car. (He was about 8 at that time. :)
God gave him a kind and generous spirit even as a child.
Many Sweet memories of a special little brother
