“ I am sharing this with a very very heavy and broken heart.

Our little brother Mark A. Nichols passed away on March 28, 2020.

Mark was friends with and considered everyone he came in contact with a friend.

Mark's life was full of wanting to help everyone he could in every way he could, he did not care if whatever he did left him with nothing for himself as long as he could help someone else.

Mark gave his life to God a long time ago and loved our Lord with all his heart, Mark had some hard times, but he came thru with flying colors. He was so proud of those accomplishments and so were we.

Mark loved his son Matthew and his grandkids Aliya and Matt Jr. With all his heart, they were his life.

Mark was very kind hearted all thru his life. And it truly showed.

Mark loved Christmas and family gatherings for birthdays or cookouts or just to hang out, he loved to tell stories and jokes constantly.

One never knew if he was joking or not till he started laughing.

Mark loved Half Price Books, movies, and going to GoodWill stores, he was an avid Gijoe fan till no end.

Mark loved life and was always singing out loud all through the day.

We went everywhere together, everywhere!

Whenever I did the yard he always helped and made sure to keep a close watch on me and brought me water to make sure I stayed hydrated. Then he would help me clean up at the end.

If one of his family fell ill he made sure to be by our sides to comfort us and made sure we had everything we needed.

Mark loved to cook and did so everyday, he made delicious meals.

Mark was not only my brother, he was my protector too.

Mark, even though you are no longer here physically, I know you will always always be by my/our sides forever and ever.

I love you Mark forever and ever, Moto 1. I uh big girl.

“ Mark and I (Rose his sister) were very close. I called him my Mark and he called me my Rosie. He loved helping others and giving to others. He was truly a wonderful, caring and loving person. He did all things from his heart. Never expecting anything in return. He will be missed terribly. Love you for ever My Mark 🥹🥹🥹🥹
