

Marlon C. Kinlaw

October 18, 1957 - May 6, 2007

Marlon C. Kinlaw passed away quietly at home on Sunday, May 6, 2007 at the age of 49. Known for his love of hunting and fishing, he spent many happy days in the outdoors with family and friends. Marlon is survived by: half brother, Phil Fernandez; brothers and sisters, James C. Kinlaw Jr. and wife Minnie, Jay Kinlaw, Ricky Kinlaw; Brenda Meyer and husband Mike, and Tammy Huron and husband Tony; also numerous nieces, nephews, great-nieces and great nephews; and a host of friends.

SERVICES

Visitation will be from 5:00 pm to 7:00 pm Thursday, May 10, 2007 at Mission Park Funeral Chapels South followed by a Service to celebrate Marlon's life at 7:00 pm.

Tribute Wall

JL

“ I wish I could have met Mr. Kinlaw, I only knew of him through his nephew Michael Meyer Jr. His family really loved him and he will deeply be missed by all who knew him. Michael and his uncle use to be fishing buddies. I feel your pain and share in your I

Jeni Lopez - May 16, 2007 at 12:00 AM

LG

“ Ricky,

I am so sorry to hear about your loss, myself and my family have you all in our prayers. My memory of Marlon is a young man who enjoyed his family and friends so very much. You are a wonderful brother and God will help you through your greiv

Lisa Johnson Guerrero - May 13, 2007 at 12:00 AM

BL

“ It has been a long time since I last saw Marlon, but I am sorry that he passed away.He is in God's hands now.For Ricky, Tammy&Tony, and Anna I send my condolences.Marlon had a very rough life after his accident,but I still remember him as he was beforehan

Brenda Villarreal Lutz - May 11, 2007 at 12:00 AM

JH

“ Although I have not seen Marlon and his brother Ricky since shortly after graduating from Highlands High School in 1975, I am deeply saddened to hear of his death. My heart goes out to his entire family. I only have fond memories of my time spent with

Jerry Hughes - May 09, 2007 at 12:00 AM