“ I too had the pleasure of meeting Marsh through work. She was always so friendly and what a character she was! She would make me laugh so when I would get close to her desk area and I would just hear her whisper "OH CRAP"... her favorite stress word!! Then she would say, GOSH DID I SAY THAT OUT LOUD! lol... OUR little Marsha, such a tiny little Lady with a HUGE heart made of GOLD! That was Marsha, w/a Smile bigger than her! Thanks to Marsha I now have my very own hair certificate "LORETTA"S LOCKS"! Even after she retired we would meet up and I would cut her hair, that would be enough reason for Marsha to bring in some goodies for all to enjoy! I will miss your e mails and your contagious laughter my dear GAL PAL, as she would call us!!

Thank you for sharing you life with me- Rest easy my Friend !

My condolences to all the family<3

“ Marsha was a great friend for so many years. We spent so many holidays together. She loved cooking and we had so many good memories and laughs about making pickles! We grew too many pickling cucumbers. She had pickles everywhere in her house. We still laughed about it years later. Marsha loved her four legged babies, although her latest kitten was as strong willed as she was. Marsha loved family and friends. She will be greatly missed.

“ I met Marsha through the firm, years ago. She was always feisty, friendly, with a ready laugh and a huge heart. She always said I made her feel so short when I stood next to her, I told her she WAS short! She was large in spirit, though. And she was everybody's mother. We got back into touch via Facebook and it was fun catching up and keeping up with her. I loved her stories. She will be missed by all of us who knew her. My warmest wishes and condolences to her family. She was a bright and loving spirit.

“ I worked with Marsha for over 34 years. She was a hoot. She never knew a stranger. Marsha was a great cook and a great person. She was the only person in our office that was shorter than me. One of a kind!!

“Marsha was one of the best employees ever of our Firm, and an even better person. We enjoyed exchanging e-mails from time to time after her retirement. I know how much she enjoyed return visits to her family over the years which she relayed in some detail. You have my deep condolences. I only hope that your memories of Marsha will lessen your loss over time. I will most remember her spunk and smile.

“Marsha! A beautiful soul. “You laugh with your eyes,” you told me. “You laugh with your heart,” I told you right back. And laugh, we did. Nine years of meeting at my desk for chats before the day started at the law firm, more chatting at lunch, and then calls at home almost every evening to finish the chats. That’s a lot of shared secrets, good advice, funny stories and sad tears. I am Blessed to have had you as a trusted confidante and priceless friend. Smile with your heart, Marsha! My sadness today is in direct proportion your happiness in Heaven.

“Marsha, you were one of a kind. Always thinking of sweet kind things to do for others. You were such a sweet loving person. I will always remember your kindness and your huge beautiful smile that would light up a room in an instant. It was such a pleasure to work with you for a few years before you retired. I will miss your emails and your cooking that you would bring to us at the office even after you retired. I will miss reading your posts on FB especially about your sweet kitten that you loved so very much. You will be so missed and always remembered.
