“ My favorite memory of Marsha is when she came to visit my sister, Jennifer Boice, and I and we went to New York City around Christmas 2007 (8?). We rented her a motorized scooter to get around and, after a day of sightseeing, stopped in a random bar to get a drink. It went to Marsha's head a little too quickly and soon she was giggling like a school girl and bumping into empty bar tables with her scooter as we were trying to leave! The bartender was in tears and our stomachs hurt soooo badly from laughing with her about it! She was a very fun person and will be dearly missed!

“ You were a 1 of a kind neighbor, Those many evenings, you, Jesse, and I along with Shirley and sometimes John just sat around in your driveway and talked about anything and everything were a great way to unwind from the day and just have fun. You have been missed around here and will continue to be missed.
Rest in paradise my friend!

“ I'll always remember the time we spent in Washington DC visiting the Smithsonian's and how much fun she and I had that day. Marsha was one of the funniest people I've ever met and a wonderful lady and she will be missed.
