

Marshall Culpepper

January 6, 1919 - August 23, 2010

Marshall Culpepper, age 91, went home to be with the Lord on Monday, August 23, 2010 after a short battle with pneumonia. He resided, along with his loving wife of 68 years at Regency Manor Nursing Home in Floresville, Texas. He was born in Bremond, Texas but always called San Antonio his home. He is survived by his wife, Lillian Joyce Bankston Culpepper; sons, Forrest Marshall Culpepper and wife Cindy; Charles Douglas Culpepper and wife Janice. Marshall had four grandchildren; Chris Culpepper , StephanieCulpepper Ricondo and her husband Ronnie, Douglas Culpepper and wife Laurie and Christy Culpepper Edwards and husband Christopher. He and wife Joyce were also blessed with three great grandchildren; Austin Ricondo, Marshall Ricondo and Tressie Edwards. Mr. Culpepper lived a strong and blessed life and was a WW II veteran. After leaving the Air Force after 20 years of active duty and 10 years of reserve duty , he started several businesses and retired in 1993. He enjoyed fishing, country music and being with his family more than anything. He was a strong Christian and a gentle man and will be greatly missed everyone. You couldn't ask for a better husband, father or friend.

Tribute Wall

RP

“ *Charles, Forrest and Mrs Culpepper,
Our entire family was saddened by your loss and my father asked me to send our condolences on everyone's behalf. The Culpepper's were the perfect neighbors and undoubtedly an important ingredient in mine and Troy's upbr*

---

Ron Pocher - August 30, 2010 at 12:00 AM

JO

“ *Mrs Culpepper,
I want to extend my condolences to you and your family. You and Mr Culpepper were the most kindest neighbors my parents had. We are deeply sadden but know that Mr Culpepper is in the hands of the most high. God Bless you and your family.*

---

Joyce - August 29, 2010 at 12:00 AM

RN

“ condolences to the family

---

Ray & Don Nagel - August 27, 2010 at 12:00 AM