“ I'm so sorry for the loss of your Mom. She was like a Mother to me and always welcomed me with open arms. I was blessed to be allowed to be part of her world with her boys until we lost contact. I will always hold dear the camping trips and times I spent by her side prepping the sides and desserts for what seemed to be a weekly Moreno celebration. Rest in peace sweet lady. Until we meet again I will always remember your contagious smile and "M and M" making us laugh till we cried. -💕S.R

“ She gave birth to me on November 27 1972 my only brother came to be January 1978 she only gave birth to two brothers named after st Anthony not sure who wrote the obituary of a woman you obviously didn't know nor could you ever know the pain of your mother dying and founding out like this well mom my days are numbered nowadays and days are coming to mark your passing I wish I could of told you a story of heartbreak betrayal and dishonor but you knew to keep your green eyed pride and joy safe by keeping him away from would only trigger the bitter hatred and anger that could only lead me to death. mom I kept my last promise to you to stay away and not bring harm to anyone including myself well mom my days are numbered and we shall walk together again on our dirt roads in Poteet I hope heaven gates will at least allow me to see you one last time I'm very sorry you did not say bye to me I had no idea absolutely none but maybe for the best mom because a son doesn't forget or forgive his trespassers that's Gods job my mom I love you I have never and will never forget you your fist born son Goodbye
