

Martha Luann Lund Hunt

October 17, 1941 - November 3, 2019

Martha Luann Lund Hunt of San Antonio passed away peacefully Sunday, November 3, 2019, after a long battle with Alzheimer's disease. She was preceded in death by her husband of 32 years, Col. (ret) James H Lund. She is survived by her brother, Jim Hanna, two children, Alisann Schweiker and David Lund, as well as 5 grandchildren and a multitude of nieces, nephews, cousins and dear friends. Visitation will be held at Mission Park Funeral Chapel North on Sunday, November 10 from 6:00 to 9:00pm. Services will be held on Monday, November 11, 2019, at 11:00.

Luann, Mother, Grandmother, LuLu, Aunt Lu, dear friend. Luann was called by many names and she meant so much to so many people. All those who had the chance to meet Mother, loved her. She was one of those rare people who truly delighted in making others happy. She was the cornerstone of her family; the rock they could all lean on when times were tough or celebrate with during the highs. Although the world will be a poorer place without her, the wonderful memories we share of her remind us we were glad to have had her in our lives.

Luann was born in Meridian and never imagined she would have the opportunity to live all over the world. Jim promised her he would get her back to Texas one day and, after 27 years of marriage and moving, he fulfilled his promise. Although Texas was always where she was from, Mother created a home wherever she went, and there were a lot of destinations in her life. 12 different Air Force bases and 18 total moves in 30 years and she made every new assignment and home an adventure that we all looked forward to taking. Somehow, she effortlessly convinced us that moving from Germany to Montgomery, Alabama, was an upgrade and we never doubted it. Every time we moved, Mother would spend all of the first night getting the kitchen in order so we could have breakfast together as a family the first morning in our new house.

Along with all those moves and address changes came the need of finding a church home and getting involved. Whether as the pianist for a small church outside Athens, Greece, or just keeping her children in line in the pew, Luann being in church and she loved the Lord. Worship for her was a must and there better be some good old fashioned hymn singing involved. And her family was going to be with her celebrating the Lord. Church was never a “do we have to?” but instead a “do we get to?”.

Luann’s family was her focus but that title definitely was not limited to the family under the roof or even the large extended family that fell under that giant category of “cousin”; it included anyone who crossed her path. She never met a stranger and treated everyone as a friend she just had not invited to her Christmas Eve party...yet. And though the world was her neighborhood, she had a special place in her heart for her dear friends, and them for her. As good as a mother and friend as Luann was, those traits could not hold a candle to her strength as a grandmother. She loved her grandchildren: David, Jackson, Mimi, Caroline and James. They gave her energy that put their parents to shame; there was not a playground slide or backyard game that she would not jump right in, even if the slides provided a good laugh for the grandkids when she got stuck. Grandmother would light up when the grandkids came over; her house was an anything goes place full of candy, ice cream and, most of all, unconditional love for them. A sleepover would very easily turn into a weekend at grandmother’s house and she would not have it any other way.

Mother’s passing is a small dark cloud in a sky full of silver linings. Although Alzheimer’s had taken its toll, it could not take away the joy that was evident in her eyes upon seeing her family or friends until the very end. She was kind enough to have taken the time to create great memories that will sustain us through this time of loss and keep her forever in that special place in our hearts that she helped create.

“ We met Luann and her family when the Air Force sent us to Texas- and God sent us the best friend imaginable. We were neighbors and she was the kind of neighbor that if you went to borrow a cup of sugar, she baked you a whole cake. If you ever met and talked to Luann, she could not imagine celebrating the next holiday without you in her home. Throughout the years we raised children together, shared grandchildren, took golf lessons, celebrated everything, cried through sad times and laughed every day. We walked-ten miles one day- talked and prayed. What joy I know she brings to heaven and what memories she leaves with each of us to treasure.

“ I loved Luann! When children, she was my partner in crime, my playmate, my cousin and most of all, my friend. As we got older we didn't see each other as much but when we did, it was like we had never been apart!! We laughed, we argued and we loved. She was one special person and will be missed by all who had the joy of having been around her! I can only imagine the laughing that has gone on in heaven this week!! Luann will be missed but we can rejoice just knowing that we can be there laughing with her one day! Gone but never forgotten!

“ Luann was more a sister than a sister-in-law to me. As all her friends and family have said, she was just the brightest spot in the universe. She loved my brother with all of her being and she made kin of us all the day they married. To be in her home was to be treated like royalty. She and my brother were God's greatest examples of Christians. All that she did was done with thought and gracefulness. I have celebrated with Luann and we have mourned together. We have certainly had the blessing of laughing together more often than crying. How did 53 years of our lives slip by so suddenly? We really lost our Luann some time ago when her illness robbed her of her greatest gifts. Rest easily now, my lovely sister. You live on in my heart forever and now in the arms of Jesus.

“ The first time I met mama Lund was at the funeral of her husband Jim. Even in the darkest of hours, her light of love and Christian devotion illuminated all who entered her orbit. She adored her family and showed unconditional love for all who came into contact with her. She always put others first and went out of her way to make sure everyone was wrapped in a blanket of loving and thoughtful attention. No other mother, mother-in-law, or grandmother could have been more proud or devoted to her family and friends. I will never forget her smile and infectious laugh. She always made me feel part of her extended family. I will always cherish our conversations and the visits I had at her house. Also the times when she would come visit us when David was at school. The world will always be a better place for having had her in it. Her legacy will always live on in her children and grandchildren. The Lord has called her home, and I know beyond a shadow of a doubt, her and Jim are looking on with love and pride of the family and friends they cared so deeply for. I will miss you mama Lund! I love you very much. One day we will see each other again and have a good laugh over a plate of your famous Hawaiian french toast.
