“ It's hard to believe she is no longer with us. I have cared for many people in my life but Marty was more like a mother always had the perfect advice to give me and always knew how to cheer me up. We always had the best conversations over sweet bread and coffee she was amazing and we'll truly miss you I love you I love you I love you Marty and can't wait till the day we meet again till then don't forget to watch over your crazy girls that weren't your blood but we loved you like family 😭
