“ Ken and Doug, I wanted to express my condolences to you and your families. I had every intention of going this morning to the service but between leaving late and traffic, I did not make it. I have such good memories of the neighborhood at that time and all the kids going in and out of each other homes. Our moms were saints putting up with us all. Doug, it was good to have you over at our house so much. I guess you were as close to a little brother as I ever got. Take care and know your mom is in our thoughts and prayers.

“ I remember I went to Kens home after work to go to a dinner. I showered and was chilling and Martha said,do you want a lone star# Yes of course I replied. Another time in Sisterdale Martha and James had snacks and homemade ice Cream! What a treat it was ! So good! Goodbye Martha ! You were a great Mom and cook and we will always LOve you!
