“ Martha,
What a privilege and honor to have had you in my life. Martha was my supervisor for 8 yrs.
In those 8 yrs. I learned so much from her
This lady was a disguised angel. She had so much faith you felt such goodness from her.
I loved it when she called me Orie my name is Oralia but Martha called me Orie.
My heart is aching for the loss of one of the best humans beings in this world.
My condolences to her family - hubby, beautiful daughter, son and grandson.

“ We are very sorry for your loss. Martha has always been very kind to our family especially when we made surprise visits to my mom. My mom, Frances Caverly, and Martha have been best friends for years. They will now continue their friendship in Heaven. I know my Mom was probably waiting to see her again.
