“ I posted a picture of myself with Ronnie James Dio on my FB page from the late 80s and Martin is in my picture. A former boss of his recognized him and we've been talking about him all day long. My condolences on his passing. Aurora Cantu, former radio friend

“ I remember a sweet, scrawny quiet kid. I didn't see him for a long time as I was 10 years older and went away to college, then married shortly after graduation and moved far away. This was before cell phones and social media, so it was harder to keep in touch. I saw him again for the first time in ages about 20 years ago, and wow! He'd grown into a big strapping man, but had the same gentle way about him. I miss you and your great smile, Petin, but you're in my prayers and heart forever!! My condolences to his parents, my Uncle Martin & Aunt Maria Elena, and his wife, Mary, and his children and grandchildren and whole family.

“Marty was not just my first cousin, but my friend. He was a gentle giant with a huge heart, and his smile was just as big. He always greeted me with a bear hug and kiss. He listened to what ever you had to say. His comments were always positive. I never heard him say anything bad about anyone. He loved laughing, and making you laugh. He cherished every waking moment, and loved his family to no end.

I miss you already Cuz 🥺
