Marvin H. Cook, Jr. went to be with the Lord in his home surrounded by his family on January 14, 2022 at the age of 88. He was born on July 24, 1933 in San Antonio, Texas to Marvin H. Cook, Sr. and Roberta Bryant. He is preceded in death by his beloved wife of 58 years, Naoma L. Cook; his parents; sister Ruth Childress and brother-in-laws Med Childress and Arnold Berry. Marvin served in the United States Army during the Korean War and was very proud of it. He retired as a bookbinder/embosser from Universal Bookbindery/D. Davis Kenny Co. with over 50 years of dedicated work, never missing a day of work.

He was the kindest and most caring person, always thinking of others first. He loved building and staying active, he actually built the house that his family lived in for over 60 years. Anyone who knew him knows he was a very hardworking man who excelled in all that he did and took great pride in his accomplishments.

Marvin's family meant everything to him. He was the most loving and generous husband, father, grandfather, great grandfather and great-great grandfather that anyone could ever ask for and more.

He will be greatly missed by all who knew and loved him, and never ever forgotten.
