“ This is Hearts, every year at Christmas I would get a Christmas card, with beautiful hand written notes, growing older and still driving trucks I kept saying I got to send Marvin & Rose a Christmas card letting him know how much I loved putting their Christmas Card on my tree, I never did, and now it's too late, as I sit drinking coffee with tears from Sad Heart, if you love someone, don't wait, don't hesitate, let them know.....It was just a card! No! It was his heart letting you know he was thinking of you....I'll always remember your 50's convertible with push button transmission..... I was so proud to ride with you, and you were a great Tennis Player...LOVE MALCOM KEITH GINN 3/3/1955, Laredo Frederick Ginn 2/1/81, Dakota Howard Ginn 7/28/1983, his last request was our Birthdays, to send a card....
