Our prayers continue for the entire Aguirre family and our support is always here for Mary's husband and dear friend Santiago. We love you Mary, may you have eternal rest, and rejoice in your beautiful heavenly home. Patricia & Xavier Ramirez.

“ Well Mary as I sit here thinking about all the laughs and good memories we shared. I want you to know . It ain't the same with you not here . I know yours and my father's daily routines like a book .now with a blink of an eye it's all gone . You were always there for me it was you who was there who was there when I came from a very dark place .to give me hope and encouragement .and tell me never to give up and you were the only one who ever told me . I'm proud of you more then once .I will never forget the times I made you laugh ! It really made my day . Laura and me talk about you everyday since you left us always starts with a laugh but ends with a tear one thing I know for sure is no love compares to the love my father has for you the look in his eyes says it all he misses you like crazy .he looks at me when I water and trim your plants yes your plants are fine . Me Laura and my father .miss seeing you in your recliner . We love you . Love you always your son ! Jimmy aguirre jr
