Mary C. Allbritton

March 25, 1930 – May 31, 2017

Mary C. Allbritton, born March 25, 1930, went home to be with her Savior, May 31, 2017. She was 87 years old. Mary is survived by her loving husband of 60 years, Charles M. Allbritton, son Brian Allbritton, daughter-in-law Phyllis Allbritton and granddaughter Katelyn Allbritton.

Mary was a graduate of Waxahachie High School. She worked as an Insurance Endorsement clerk for Hardware Mutual Insurance Company of Dallas, TX. She then changed jobs to become the church secretary for Farley Street Baptist Church, Waxahachie, TX. While working there, she met Charles and they were married in 1957. The family moved to San Antonio, TX. in 1967. From that time forward, she worked as a payroll clerk for the Northside Independent School District. She retired in June 1992 to pursue her greatest ambition, taking care of her new granddaughter, Katelyn.

Mary was a faithful member of First Baptist Church where she served on numerous committees and the coordinator of volunteers for the 4th Street Inn Ministry. Mimi, as she was known by her family and friends, has left this mortal world to reside in heaven with Jesus, and her family members that have preceded her. To her family, she is and forever shall be our foundation of faith, love, honor and service. Mimi you will be missed but your work here is complete. Rest in peace. II Timothy 2:15.

“Mary and Charles were our next door neighbors for 27 years and remain precious friends today. They treated us like family and we shared laughs, desserts and parts of meals, conversation, consolation in troubled times, and a friendship that just fit! Don and I rode his Harley Davidson out of town on many trips over the years. The first time Mary came out to tell us to have a good time, she added..."Y'all put your seat belts on now!!!" lol She and I would check on each other when the men were out of town. We didn't see each other every day, but most days. We always knew we could count on each other when needed. Two of our dearest friends. We received many blessings from knowing this feisty lady! Knowing where she is now brings peace. Our hearts go out to you Charles and Brian, Phyllis and Kaitlyn and all her other family and friends.

*Our Love,
Don and Clara Carsten*
