

Mary Ann Saldaña Barrientos

February 22, 1941 - December 29, 2020

On December 29, 2020, our beloved Mother, Grandmother "Mamo", and Great Grandmother, Mary Ann Saldaña Barrientos, entered into eternal rest with our Lord with all her children by her side.

Mary Ann is preceded in death by her husband, Raoul John Barrientos in 2008 , mother, Beatrice Muguerza Saldaña; father, Abraham Lozano Saldaña; her sister Mary Antoinette Varela, and brother Abraham Saldaña Jr.

She is lovingly remembered and survived by her children John Anthony (Marci), Nadine (Riyad-Dec'd), Rodney (Peggy) and Monica (Angie); her grandchildren, Andrew (Erica) , Michael, Elyssa, Alaya, Brianna, Joseph and Alina; her great grandchildren, Penelope, Hudson, Noah and Londyn; her sister Mary Alice Flores (Manuel), and brother Lee Roy Saldaña (Betty).

Mary Ann was born in San Antonio, Texas on February 22, 1941 and graduated from St. Phillips of Jesus Catholic School, Incarnate Word High School and attended The University of the Incarnate Word College. While in college, she met her adoring husband of 46 years, Raoul John, at a house party given by mutual friends. They started dating and enjoyed their common interests of dancing, listening to live music, and get-togethers with family and friends. After marrying in August of 1962, they resided in San Antonio and started their own family.

Aside from being a wonderful and loving mother, grandmother, and great grandmother, Mary Ann was a teacher, office administrator, great cook, dog lover, bingo enthusiast and had a contagious laugh with a beautiful smile.

Mary Ann and Raoul loved traveling to distant places, enjoyed hosting New Year's Eve parties downtown and cherished dancing together at music festivals---they were inseparable and loved each other and life immensely. Mary Ann exemplified integrity and kindness with everyone and everything she did. She will be greatly missed by all her family and friends.

“ My mom went to Incarnate Word High School with Mary Ann. They were close and remained great friends for many years. My sisters and I would spend a lot of time at each other's homes playing. We loved her very much she was always very kind to us. She was funny and a sweet lady. My deepest condolences and prayers for family. Let Perpetual Light Shine Upon her May She Rest In Peace.
