

Mary Ann O'Bryant

September 8, 2020

Our beloved Mary Ann passed away peacefully on September 8, 2020. She was born in the summer of 1938 in Del Rio, Texas to Gladys Ethel and Henry Thomas Green. Her mother, daddy, husband J.L., and son-in-law Frank Gary Walbridge preceded her in death.

Mary Ann is survived by her two siblings, Henry Thomas Green and Sherry Sue McElrath. She was a loving and devoted mother to Joseph Lee (Hody) and Betty O'Bryant, Dail Thomas O'Bryant, and Sherry (Dawne) Walbridge. She was Grandmommy to Cassie Ann Rhodes, Zachary Joseph O'Bryant, Thomas Anthony O'Bryant, Natalie Ethel O'Bryant, Isabella Noel Walbridge, and Samuel Raymond Walbridge. She had two great-grandchildren, Andrew Guy Robertson and Lula Mae Patricia O'Bryant.

Mary Ann was truly a Proverbs 31 woman. She loved God and her family above all else. She was a very industrious woman and found delight in caring for her family, her home, and the many friends and children that came by for a meal around her warm and welcoming table. Mary Ann and J.L. married young, and her love for him was legendary. Mary Ann's children and grandchildren were truly the joy of her life, and she sewed many years of loving care and an amazing sense of fun and adventure into their hearts. Her unconditional love and loyalty to those that she loved was admirable, and her faith in God's redemption was astounding. Her smile was epic and her laugh a treasure for all.
