“ When we went to Grandma and Grandpa's house it was always a fun time. Grandma was always cooking for us, playing card games or dominos with us. She loved her game shows too. Camping, fishing, quilting, canning ...there didn't seem much my Grandma couldn't do. She even cut the boys hair. She was the most loving wonderful person I have ever known. We love you Grandma and will miss you so much. ❤️

I don't think any of us grandkids could ever ask for a better grandma than the one we had. She had 11 kids which means she had lots of grandkids and great grandkids. She had a way of always making each one of us feel like we were her favorite. She was the most kind-hearted, sweetest and loving person I ever knew. Idk how she put up with all of us kids with such patience. I still tell my kids to this day something I remember her saying when one of us were in trouble..Im not mad at you, I'm just correcting you. (Her, Always with a sweet smile, me not so much. Lol) I remember the last reunion I went to..My phone was ringing at like 7am and it was Grandma. I answered and asked her are you ok. , what's going on and she was like oh ya, Mandy..I just wanted you to know I got coffee made and as soon as you get dressed come down here and get some and talk with Grandma a while. So I left the kids asleep and went to her and asked what she wanted to talk about and she was like oh nothing , I just wanted to spend time with my girl. It is simple things like that she would do to make us feel special. I could go on for days with all the memories that her and Grandpa gave me. She was a true blessing. An angel on earth and now in heaven.
