

Mary Ann Balzen

February 2, 1929 - September 3, 2010

Mary Ann Balzen entered rest September 3, 2010 in Crestview, Florida. Mary Ann was born to Hugo and Annie Lambrecht on February 2, 1929 in San Antonio, Texas. Her happiest years were spent with the love of her life, Adolph Balzen. Adolph and Mary Ann resided on the Balzen Farm on Stuart Road, where they operated a dairy farm and also enjoyed farming and raising cattle. Both were members of the Parita United Methodist Church for many years. After the death of her beloved husband, Mary Ann moved to be near her only child, Mary Lucille in Baker, Florida. In Baker, Mary Ann enjoyed watching her only grandchild, Crystal, grow up and living very near her daughter and son-in-law, Lamar Booker. Mary Ann made the Baker community her home and all who crossed paths with her knew that they had met an angel. She made many friends and will be greatly missed by all, including Missy, the devoted family dog. Later in life, Mary Ann was a member of Baker First United Methodist Church. In addition to her daughter and son-in-law Mary Lucille and Lamar Booker, and granddaughter and grand-son-in-law Crystal and Nathan Boyles, Mary Ann is survived by her siblings, Pauline Hartl and husband Eugene, Clara Miller and husband Marshall and Adolph Lambrecht and wife Katrina, two sisters-in-law Ann Krock and Margaret Staudt and numerous nieces, nephews, friends and extended family members. Arrangements are with Mission Park South, with the visitation on Wednesday, September 8th from 5 pm to 8 pm and the funeral being held Thursday, September 9th, at 11:00 a.m. Interment will follow in Mission Burial Park South. A memorial service will be held in Crestview, Florida at a later date.
