BENAVIDES

Mary C. Benavides of San Antonio, TX, passed away peacefully on October 3, 2010, from complications of Alzheimer's disease. She was born June 6, 1928 in Lockhart, TX. On October 4, 1953 she married Joe Benavides, her beloved husband who preceded her in death. After 15 years apart, they are now rejoined in eternal life.

Mary was a wonderful wife, mother, grandmother, sister, friend, neighbor, parishioner and Catholic. After raising four children she spent time dedicated to the church, helping and caring for others. She loved singing in the Spanish Choir and volunteering at St. Gregory's church where she was a pillar of the parish for 42 years. Mary is survived by her four daughters and sons-in-law: Sylvia and Jesse Trevino, Diana and John Kanios, Norma and Adolph Ponce and Sandra and Mark Oliver; her grandchildren, Joe and David Trevino, Ashley and Frank Ponce, Allison Kanios, Ben, Ryan and Nick Oliver; one of her sisters, Alicia Feijoo of Cleveland, Ohio; nieces, nephews and good friends. We will all miss her for her love, kindness and generous heart.
