“ I don't even know where to begin by describing the beautiful soul Mrs.Borrego was. She was the upmost kindest sweetest person I have ever known. Her thoughtfulness for everyone who crossed her path never went unnoticed. My heart once again is heartbroken by her loss. I always felt her love and she never forgot to let me know...she always took the time by giving me a small gift, a phone call or just in conversation....” I love you Jenny” she would always say...I will cherish all the gifts she gave me from the jewelry to the cute teacher things to all my adorable Christmas decor but most of all I will cherish the love she gave me and my family. All of the Borrego family has been our family for such a long time it goes without saying how much we care and adore them.

I feel like my thoughts and words are all over the place because my heart and mind are trying to relive all of our moments and memories together...so many dinners and get togethers at her house, night outs for dinner and the conversations about how much she loves her grandchildren, family and Richard...her food, her smile, her sweet voice when she greeted me....so many things. I have always loved you Mrs.Borrego, I will miss your smile and voice & to honor you and your spirit I hope to share and give as you did and continue your legacy by being an example of your work here on earth...I know without a doubt that my brother was there waiting to greet you on the other side. You and Richard had such a special relationship...the love between a son-in-law and mother-in-law...so beautiful and so rare...we will continue to grieve for both of you for your absence is beyond measure...I love you Mrs. Borrego 🤝🙏😭
