“ Darling was more than a sister in law to me during the years I lived in San Antonio. She was like a mother to me along with her sister Dolores. She welcomed me into the family and made me feel at home with her warmth, good humor and upbeat attitude. It was indeed a pleasure to know her and all that came with her. RIP Darling you will never be forgotten!

“ Going to miss her terribly. I'll never forget the 1st time I worked at the same HEB as her. I was talking to the store director and I saw her across the store. I said, Hey, there's my Aunt Darling. The store director looked at me, you mean Mary Bravo? Yea, that what we call her. He got on the intercom and broadcasted " Darling Bravo" can you please come to the front office. She was so upset with me for weeks. Good times. You guys mom. Love you all.
