Mary had a fondness for traveling with her brother Ben Bernal and their many trips to Mexico. She loved traveling to California to visit her daughter and her family on many occasions. Upon her return she spent countless hours talking to her daughter Sylvia. Mary enjoyed playing Bunco with the ladies and was a proud member of a Bunco club.

Mary's greatest obsession was crocheting; she patiently taught those who wanted to learn. Her love of the art has been passed on to several family members. Without knowing that her lessons would invoke their love of the art and that her legacy would continue. Mary will be greatly missed by all who knew and loved her.
