

Mary Ann Clare

October 11, 1938 - October 1, 2012

Mary Ann Clare passed in San Antonio, TX on Monday, October First just before her seventy fourth birthday at home from natural causes. She was born October 11, 1938 in Lemay, Missouri to Fred and Hazel Bremerkamp. She graduated Wellsville High School and later attended Nursing School in Mexico, Mo. On May 5, 1956 she married Warren Clare at Wellsville Baptist Church. She traveled extensively with her family from Alaska to New Jersey, eventually settling in south central Kansas, relocating after her stroke to San Antonio, Texas. Mary Ann worked as a nurse off and on her whole life as well as a homemaker. She loved to sew, cook, and find bargains at garage sales. She also volunteered at El Dorado State Prison in outreach ministry besides taking Theology classes at Butler County Community College. Mary Ann is survived by her husband Warren Clare; children Sarah and Chris Van Buren, Fred Clare, and John Clare; sister Linda and Richard Lewis; five grandchildren; and three great-grandkids. Services will be held at St. Matthew Catholic Church in San Antonio at , and will be buried in Ascension Cemetery at the Spiritual Life Center, Wichita, Kansas. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made for the Ronald McDonald House.

SERVICES

A Mass of the resurrection will be held at St. Mathews catholic church at 2:00PM on Wednesday, October 3, 2012. Interment will take place at a future date in Ascension Cemetery in Wichita, KS.