

Mary Sue Espinoza

December 25, 1925 - March 8, 2025

Grandma always said “life is for the living, and I’ve lived”

Mary Sue Espinoza

Born December 25, 1925, danced into heaven to be our Lord and Savior March 8, 2025. She is now reunited with her father Henry De Leon, Mother Helen De Leon, her husband Margil G Espinoza, her daughter Rita M. Martinez, son in law, Carlos D. Martinez, some of her beautiful sisters and brothers. As well as many other loved family members. She is survived by her son Albert Espinoza, her siblings Dolores Beardsley, Irene De Leon, Mauriano De Leon, Martin De Leon, 4 granddaughters and 9 great grandchildren and other amazing family members and friends.

Mary Sue definitely lived a full life, Dancing for over 50 years and even taught line dancing at the Wesley senior center. Mary Sue and Margil, her husband taught at Arthur Murray for almost 10 years! Making friends everywhere she went. Mary Sue also loved fashion and makeup which gave her a wonderful career working at JC Penny in the cosmetic counter and even modeled for the department store. Mary Sue was a true and loyal servant of God attending and helping at St Lawrence Catholic Church every chance she got. Grandma even owned her own restaurant off of Guadalupe St. called La Rancherita, Mary Sue could cook! There was always enough for everybody!

We will share with you some of Mary Sue's famous words of wisdom, she'd love to say and live by:

"I can do it myself "

"This too, shall pass"

"Life is for the living, and I've lived, you have to live"

she'd say she will arrive in heaven dancing.....

We will miss her and her words of wisdom. You are and will continue to be so loved.

“ I remember going to my Aunt Mary and Uncle Tito's house. She always was sweet and offered us something to eat! There was a Fig tree in their backyard and we'd go pick some and eat them! You will be missed Tia! Love you❤️

Aunt Mary Sue and uncle Margil always made you feel welcome and if they over joyed to see you. The last time I visited with her the first thing she said was mija I am not teaching dancing any more. She was 98 and couldn't do it. To me that said so much about what gave her pleasure. Hugs to all the family.
