“ We had a long run mom. I know you were willing but tired. I'm glad for you now that you have joined Dad, all your family and friends. I know you missed them. Thank you for your time you shared with me. Peek in and see where I go from here.
I love you and thanks for being my mom.

“ I have so many memories of you Grandma. Most of my childhood was spent with you and Grandpa. Some of my most cherished memories we're spent with you. you have to wake us up in the morning and get us ready for school oh, you took us to school, you picked us up from school you fed us lunch and dinners on evenings so Mom and Dad could get away and have some alone time. I remember playing at our neighbor's house and hearing you yell for us that it was lunch time. I have memories of great food handmade by you everyday. can I have to say it's hard to find a place that made food that tastes as good as yours; from the homemade corn and flour tortillas, the gorditas, the beans and rice and cheese and the best conchitas & mendo ever. I enjoyed listening to your stories of you and Grandpa going out and having good times. and I'm so grateful for all the memories that I have with you and Grandpa. I'm grateful that I was able to care for you in your older days. and the best part of that time was the time that you and Madison and Kevin got to spend together getting to know you like I knew you as a child. I couldn't ask for anything better then for my family to get to enjoy time with you as I did.

Love always

“ Mrs. Funari...when I remember her it is with so much love and adoration. My time spent with her pales in comparison to her years. Forever will I cherish her memory like she was my own mother.

Her giggles and chuckles still echo loud as I recall teasing her about dancing on table tops. The undying love she had for her husband was evident in the recollection of her stories from the past.

No matter what the day or situation she demonstrated resilience, good humor and kindness. Many wonderful times WERE shared together...she never complained, was always grateful and did her best help herself.

She made me feel loved and accepted as part of her family. She will always hold a special place in my heart.

Thank you Mrs Funari for the wonderful memories and loving me.

Rest is Peace.

My condolences to the Funari family.

Much love Cathie.

“ I remember going over to visit at Koehler Court. Your mom barbecued chicken. If not chicken, then we would sit at the table and Grandma and your mom would catch up. Your mom was always welcoming and kind. Rest in Peace
