“ It's been over two years since you passed, Tia Mere, and, at times, it seems like only yesterday. sometimes, I wake & I would Love ❤️ to have breakfast with you at your fave place, Little Mexico. Fun Times, Tia!

Now that you & your Sisters are all together over there, I feel less sad, knowing how much you loved each other & missed each other... and now you are together with Your parents & Brothers. It is a lovely thought & comforts me here. Give my Mama, Eloisa, A BIG HUG, pls.

Yesterday & Today, Blue-Jays landed on the trees next door... sign from My Mama. Love you & Mama. I am doing well. TGod.
