“ I wanted to say thank you “mom” for accepting me into your family at 14 yrs years old. For showing me the true meaning of being mother at the age of 18 . Thank you for the best grandma “momo” to my babies Julia Jessica and Robert Eugene Jr. I will always have our memories for the time we had together. Especially at poker games. My condolences and prayers go out to your family . May you rest in peace!

“ It hasn't been the same, my days feel like a blur or like I'm living in a dream. I can't believe you're really gone momo, but thank you. Thank you for being a wonderful grandma (momo) to not only me but all of your grandkids. I'll miss everything about you, but one thing I will miss the most is walking into your house, and hearing “my julieeee” with a big smile on your face. You are so loved and will be dearly missed by us all. Watch over us, and come visit me in my dreams soon beautiful. I love you momo, until I see you again 💜

“ Momo aka (Mom) Your truly gonna be missed there's no words to describe how it will be from now on. First off I just want to Thank You from the bottom of my heart when you accepted Justine and I into your lives 33 yrs ago I know it probably wasnt easy but you did accept Justine as your grand daughte at the age of 2 yrs old , I couldn't of ask for a better mother-in-law and 33 years of you being my Momo ( Mom ) I'm truly gonna miss you so much. Thank you for being the most wonderful caring Momo for all of us. Gonna miss our poker games, ur visits, ur laughter and most of all your Hugs. Don't worry about you Pedrito aka Peter I will always be there for him. Your Grand Kids and Great Grand kids are gonna miss you so much. May you RIP now Momo I will forever have you in my memories and in my Heart.
