“ I only knew you, Mary, briefly, but your abundance of warmth and love came through to me in such a way that it truly made me appreciative to have had the opportunity to have known you. My most deepest and sincere sympathies to everyone who remains here without you, I will share in their sadness as we remember you. ”

“ Mary and U.I. Were like one. They strengthened each other. I could tell they counted and trusted each other. What wonderful compassion. They shared good and happy memories and worked through the difficult ones because of their strong faith. In Heaven on Easter is a very special gift. Can you imagine her joy! She will be waiting for U.I. When his time comes but for now she will have no worries, pain or sadness.

My prayers to U.I. and all the family members left here to become strong in these times and hold and love each other. I will pray for all of you and I know our Lord will hold you on his arms and bring you Father God's Blessings.

Love and caring to you all.
